Christmas Party Plans Completed

To Hold Annual Event At Daly City Theatre

More than two thousand grammar school children in Daly City will enjoy the annual community Christmas party, to be held at the Daly City theatre, Monday, December 21.

The war and one of its many damaging results, the closing of the Daly City WPA Recreation department, failed to stop civic leaders from continuing the traditional Christmas event for Daly City's youngsters. At a special meeting of the city's recreation committee, Tuesday evening, in the city hall, preliminary plans for the party were begun. The city council voted to stage the party and finance part of it at a recent council meeting.

As in the past, the party will begin at 12:30 p. m. at the Daly City theatre. Tickets will be given to all pupils in grammar schools in the Jefferson Elementary school district and the parochial school on the last day before Christmas vacation starts. Each child must show his ticket before being admitted to the theatre.

A combination stage and screen entertainment will be shown to the young guests at the theatre, and each child will be presented with a bag of candy. Music, a dancing program, and many other kinds of stage entertainment will be offered at the party.

The recreation committee are preparing for over two thousand guests, according to Mrs. Ann Eason, member of the committee. The Women's Civic club of Daly City is also aiding with the party preparations. This group will be in charge of sacking the bags of candy. An order for 400 pounds of candy was placed, yesterday, by Councilman Eugene Lynch, also a member of the recreation committee.

Full co-operation of the police and fire departments was assured the committee at Tuesday's meeting. Present at the meeting were the following committee members: Mrs. Ann Eason, Mrs. Maisie Boyle, co-chairmen; Mayor A. J. Gaggero; R. L. Crane jr., superintendent of grammar schools; Councilman John J. Fahey sr.; Arthur J. Bodien, city water superintendent; and Councilman Eugene Lynch.

Miss Young To Attend WAAC Officers' School

The honor of being among the first auxiliaries to be chosen from the ranks of the Women's Army Auxiliary corps to attend the WAAC Officer Candidate school, has been won by Miss Juanita Young, formerly of Daly City. News of her outstanding achievement came to the Daly City Record from the public relations officer at Fort Des Moines, Iowa.

A total of 125 auxiliaries was selected from approximately 500 applicants. They were chosen after they passed a rigorous series of competitive gradings. Requirements included completion of their four-week basic training course, recommendation initiated by their company commander or section chief, additional letters of recommendation from superior officers, and examination by a board of officers. The primary requisite for officer candidacy is leadership ability.

Auxiliary Young is a graduate of the University of Oregon, 1932,

Increase Bail For Purse Snatcher

John Hurley, San Francisco, identified as the man who attacked Mrs. Rosa Gomez, 330 Willits street, and snatched her purse on a Daly City street ten days ago, will answer felony charges of robbery in the superior court, it was ruled in Daly City court, Tuesday morning.

Hurley appeared before Judge R. C. MacArthur in the preliminary hearing, Tuesday, but did not testify. Following testimonies of the plaintiff and one witness, Judge MacArthur ruled that a felony had been committed, increased Hurley's bail from $500 to $1000 cash, and referred the case to the superior court.

Mrs. Gomez, testifying before Deputy District Attorney Burress Karmel, identified Hurley as her attacker. On her way home from work shortly after midnight on the night she was robbed, Mrs. Gomez was approaching the corner of Westlake avenue and Woodrow street when her attacker jumped from a hedge, placed his hand over her mouth, and knocked her to the ground. He snatched her purse, containing $15, and ran.

Her cries were heard by three persons who drove up to her in a machine, Sergeant Nels Jassen,

Fire Chief Warns Against Storing Gas

Board Working Full Time On Applications

When gasoline rationing to four gallons a week to holders of "A" books went into effect, Tuesday, a stern warning was directed to all Daly City motorists by both the War Price and Rationing Board No. 31-4 and Fire Chief A. P. Chesney of the Daly City Fire department.

"Do not store excessive gasoline bought before Tuesday in your homes or in your cars, as it is one of the most dangerous fire hazards known," was the sharp fire prevention instructions to all local motorists. Fire Chief Chesney added that it is a state violation, punishable by law, to store more than five gallons of gasoline or any other explosive in the home.

The board for this area has been working fulltime since the registration for gasoline rationing. A flood of applications for supplemental rationing is being acted upon at the rationing headquarters, 473 Grande avenue, South San Francisco. If supplemental rationing is granted to the applicant, he will be notified by mail by the rationing board. When he appears at the board on request, he will be given either a "B" or "C" book and windshield sticker, according to how much gasoline per week the board thinks he deserves.

A special plea to all who seek a larger quota of gasoline was made by the local board. All applicants for "B" and "C" books were asked NOT to make un-necessary calls, either by telephone or in person to find out when and if they can get supplemental books.

"Those who are granted "B" and "C" books will be notified by mail," announced Mrs. C. F. Day, executive-secretary of the board.

Four important rules were announced by the rationing board for automobile and truck owners:

1. Motorists advised by mail of their eligibility MUST bring their

Accuse Colma Man Of Beating Infant

After pleading guilty, Friday, to charges of beating his year old stepdaughter, Glenn R. Bowman, Colma, was placed on two weeks' probation, Tuesday, by Judge Wade H. Clay in the Daly City justice court.

Sentence will be passed on the 19 year old stepfather, Tuesday, December 15, when he will again appear before Judge Clay. The probationary period was requested by Francis Perry, Bowman's attorney.

Bowman is accused of having beaten his infant stepdaughter, Margaret Hattan, in a fit of anger on Sunday, November 29 at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jewel Foster, Colma. Mrs. Foster, who says she witnessed the attack on the child, is the complaining witness in the case.

The trial, December 15, will begin at 10 a. m.

Dimout Violators On Decrease At Last

Fifty motorists will appear in Daly City court, tomorrow, to pay fines for violation of the dimout ordinance while driving on Daly City streets.

The number represents a decided decrease from the previous two weeks period, during which over 600 dimout violators were hauled into court here. The court collected fines from 300 motorists last week on the charge.

Aside from the throng of dimout violators, Judge R. C. MacArthur fined Rudolph Hansen, 25 Los Banos avenue, $50 on a drunken driving charge. He was arrested by police while driving on Mission street "with headlights on and in an erratic manner".

Rationing? This Is ONLY The Beginning!

After getting by the Sunday and Monday rationing deadlines without engaging in riots with coffee fiends or Sunday drivers, War Price and Rationing Board No. 31-4 will now turn attention to the rationing of all restricted goods and preparations for many more commodities soon to be curtailed.

There were still large numbers of applications for "B" and "C" mileage ration books to be passed on this week as the board worked full time to clear their desks of supplemental requests. Applicants whose requests were found justified are being instructed by mail to call at the rationing board in South San Francisco to get their supplemental books. Despite this telephone lines to the headquarters were choked with calls, asking if applications had been passed yet. Personal calls also were made, causing delay and much confusion. The rationing board renewed its plea, to motorists, NOT to call the board until the applicant has been notified by post card that his application has been passed.

For those who complain of the rationing which is supposed to be starving their sugar bins, gasoline tanks, and coffee pots, the board has a direct answer—that is, "You haven't seen anything yet!" Nationwide rationing of ALL essential foods is just a matter of months, according to the State Council of Defense.

The rationing of meat will be

Jeff Hi Declares "Patriotic Week"

"Remember Pearl Harbor — Work—Fight — Sacrifice", OWI's slogan for the anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor, has been enthusiastically accepted as a challenge by students at Jefferson Union high school.

The week of December 7-11 has been declared "Patriotic Week" and all students will wear something red, white and blue to observe it. In addition, patriotic films, speakers and other assembly programs will highlight the week. Most important, a huge war stamp drive will be launched, Monday, with the objective of having every student buy stamps during the week.

Main speaker for Patriotic Week will be Vaughan MacCaughey, editor of the Sierra Educational News, who will discuss "One Year After", at Tuesday's assembly.

Jefferson high is all set to really "go to town" on bond and stamp sales, next week. They have already reached 81 per cent participation, an increase of 20 per cent over last month. Four homeroom classes have reached the coveted 100 per cent mark. Total sales for the semester to date are $2,504. November sales totaled $1,179.50. The juniors led the school with an average purchase of stamps of $1.50 per person; the freshmen were a close second with $1.15 per person, while the senior average was 84 cents and the sophomore, 50 cents.

Reardon Names District Leaders

Describes Group As "Under Own Power"

Now fully organized and "operating under its own power" is the auxiliary police division of Daly City's civilian defense corps, it was announced by Police Chief James G. Reardon, Monday, when he released the names of auxiliary police district heads.

"They have their own captains and sergeants in each district now," announced Chief Reardon, "so they are on their own, although there is a regular officer of the police department acting as an overseer in each district."

The auxiliaries will soon be wearing badges identifying them as members of Daly City's auxiliary police force. The men are purchasing the badges themselves, and at no expense to the city. Main duty of the auxiliary police, besides drawing traffic lines and blocking off scenes of disaster, is dimout patrol each night with regular officers. They alternate shifts, helping regular officers to halt dimout violators so that tags can be written.

Captains and sergeants were elected for each district. Following are the officers elected and the regular officer-overseer in each district: district one—Ed Nolan, captain; Peter Conci, sergeant; Sergeant Ricco Benedetti, regular officer-in-charge; district two—Arthur Crooker, captain; Mel Battye, sergeant; Sergeant William P. Bolger, regular officer; district three—Sidney Watts, captain; Bill Nassano, sergeant; Officer Henry Sundermann jr., reg-

Shooting Halts Gun Girls' Careers

One week of gun-girl terror, starting with a robbery at the Globe tavern, Mission and Market streets in Daly City's south end, was halted by a bullet wound, last week, when two pretty girls who figured to make more money with a pistol than picking apples in Yakima, were finally apprehended.

One of the girls, Mrs. Betty Keifer, 24, was wounded in the abdomen when the gun she was holding went off during a fracas with another woman in a second robbery attempt. Mrs. Keifer has been given a fair chance to live but her condition still remains serious. The other girl, Mary Keifer, 19, a sister-in-law, was held by San Francisco police.

The two girls told police they were apple pickers from Yakima, and they were visiting "friends" in San Francisco.

With calm deliberation, the birls, both clad in sweaters and carrying guns, held up N. Stefanelli, and took $75 in cash from the register in the Globe tavern. One of the feminine bandits covered Stefanelli with a nickel revolver

Draft Board Orders 109 To Report To San Francisco Induction Station

Before draft contingents from Daly City to the armed forces include large numbers of 18 and 19 year olds, Daly City Draft Board No. 103 made one last big "clearance" of eligible selectees from their lists of older registrants, Friday. They ordered 109 to report to the induction station in San Francisco.

The large November contingent contained the names of 36 Daly City men and ten Colma draftees. Not all of the 109 will go into the army, as Dr. J. C. McGovern, local board chairman, stated that there would, undoubtedly, be rejects after physical examinations of such a large group had been completed. (Rejects had not yet been returned to the local board office from induction headquarters at the time the contingent was submitted for publication.)

Mario Volonte, South San Francisco, was leader of the group on their trip to induction headquarters in San Francisco. Three assistants were: Harold Wilson, 344 Westlake avenue, Daly City; Eugene Anderson, 568 Bellevue avenue, Daly City; and Joe Baraterri, South San Francisco.

Daly City men included in the contingent were: Harold Nall Wilson, 344 Westlake avenue; Albert Charles Johnson, 1158 Brunswick street; Henry Junior Mack, 269 Hillcrest drive; Peter George Tolori, 41 Theta avenue; Harry Steve Sarantitis, 128 Vale street; Sammy Salvidor Lucia, 337 Santa Barbara avenue; James Cunningham Smith, 145 Irvington street; Victorino Preciado jr., 234 Los Banos avenue; Isaac Dyke Phillips, 391 Lowell street; James Clarke Welsh, 375 Evergreen avenue; Clarence R. Smith, 167 San Diego avenue, George Benjamin Schenone, First avenue; John Alden Graff, 99 Theta avenue; David Muir Johnstone jr., 6238 Mission street; Julius C. Oyhancabal, 298 Westlake avenue; Albert Henrics, 1081 Brunswick street; Edwardo Espinosa, 162 Willits street; Alfred John Fitch, 882 Hanover street; Andrea Sardi, 180 Miriam street; Ros Whitacre, 36 Woodrow Roy Giusti, star halfback for the St. Mary's Gaels and a former Jefferson Union high school football star, has done it again. This time the honors bestowed on Daly City's prize contribution to Bay area football stars was being named on Don Glendon's All-Coast eleven.

Glendon, sports editor of the San Francisco Call Bulletin, rates the Daly City gridder tops, not only at St. Mary's or the Bay area, but on the entire Pacific coast. Guisti, who, with another

Daly City Woman One Of First To Take Over As Greyhound Driver On Peninsula

When you board a Greyhound bus for one of the Peninsula runs, from this week on, you're as apt as not to be driven to your destination by Mrs. Angelo Cabano, 54 Como street, who is one of the first women in the Bay area to be trained for driving the big Greyhounds.

Mrs. Cabano, who is well known to local shoppers, who traded with her husband at Milo's Fruit and Vegetable department, has completed her month's training course and is all ready to start her work as a full fledged driver. Her enthusiasm for the job is high. When interviewed she said,

"I'm really thrilled about this job and I do feel that with public cooperation the women drivers can be successful. It is impossible to obtain men for this work and that is why Greyhound has trained women."

The training Mrs. Cabano received consisted of actual driving with such problems as weight, clearance, overtaking and passing. According to A. V. Allen, personnel chief for Pacific Greyhound, women learn faster than men.

The runs for women will be local, as the longer runs entail too much heavy physical labor. According to Allen the women are assured the same union contract and wages that the men receive.

Uniforms for the feminine drivers will be of navy blue, with strictly tailored coat and slacks.

Mrs. Cabano will be among the first three women to drive the big Greyhounds on the San Francisco side of the bay.

New Liquor Rules In Effect Dec. 10

The issuance of Army and Navy orders restricting the purchase of intoxicating liquor for all service men in the eight western states was announced, this week, at the headquarters of Lieutenant General John L. DeWitt, commanding general of the Western Defense Command and Fourth Army. The restrictions will become effective December 10, 1942.

The announcement. made with the concurrence of Vice Admiral John W. Greenslade, commander of the Western Sea Frontier, and Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher, commander of the Northwestern Sea Frontier, said service men will be prohibited from purchasing intoxicating liquor except between the hours of 5 p. m. and midnight in establishments where liquor is served on the premises and from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m. in stores where liquor is served for consumption off the premises. The sale or consumption of beer is not restricted.

States in which these instructions apply include California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Utah, Nevada and Arizona.

Included in the announcement was a request that the civilian public assist in the protection of all service personnel and civilian workers in war industries from alcoholic excesses.

State and municipal authorities were urged to provide that all establishments or portions of establishments where intoxicating liquor is sold on the premises will be closed not later than midnight and not opened before 10 a. m., and that all stores or portions of stores where liquor is sold for use off the premises be closed not later than 8 p. m. and not opened before 10 a. m.

The announcement made it clear that should any establishment fail to meet the restriction as outlined, such premises would be denied to service personnel.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.

Nan Wynn, exotic Hollywood glamour girl, has one of the important feminine roles with Abbott and Costello in Universal's "Pardon My Sarong", currently playing at the Daly City theatre.

Well, Somebody Kept Him Waiting This Time

Councilman Hugh Smith jr., one of Daly City's "city fathers", had his paternal obligations broadened, Monday, with the arrival of a baby daughter to the Smith family.

Always a stickler for being on time, Hugh's promptness was shaken when the little miss arrived one day late! But Mrs. Smith and the baby are doing fine. There is one thing for which Councilman Smith may be commended—she arrived on a Monday when the council was not holding regular meeting!

Henry Hoyer Now At Camp Kohler

Private Henry C. Hoyer jr. began basic training, Friday, at Camp Kohler, California, at the Signal Corp Replacement Training center.

Private Hoyer lived in Anderson, California before his induction into the armed forces. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Hoyer, 138 Edgemar street, Daly City.

He will be assigned upon completion of his basic training for more advanced specialist training either at Camp Kohler or at another Signal Corps post before being assigned to a combat unit.

Name New Editor For Catholic Paper, "Monitor"

The Monitor, the official Catholic newspaper of the San Francisco Archdiocese, has recently changed its mast-head back to the one used for so many years since the paper was founded in 1858—84 years ago. With the change in mast-head there has also been a change in edition.

The new editor, Reverend Hugh A. Donohoe, Ph. D., was formerly Professor of Industrial Ethics, at St. Patrick's seminary, Menlo Park. In view of the many labor problems that may follow the Peace, Father Donohoe, by reason of his many years of study on the subject of both Capital and Labor, probably will throw many an interesting sidelight on such questions where they touch on the age-old traditions of the Catholic Church.

"May we venture to suggest to Catholic readers that, in view of the modest subscription price of the Monitor, it would be a gracious thing to encourage the new editor by subscribing, and, what is more to the point, they will surely get more than their money's worth in interesting Catholic news from every part of the world," said D. A. Bazzanella, the Monitor's treasurer.

Four 141 Scouts At Big Conference

Four boys and their leader, Joseph Straughan, represented Boy Scout Troop No. 141 at the annual Green Bar Conference at Camp Lillienthal, Saturday and Sunday. The boys present were: Robert Thompson, troop scribe; Marvin Marrow, patrol leader; Harry McCune, librarian and Jacob Hummel, quartermaster of the troop.

The boys were chosen to represent the troop as they were voted the most active of the local group. At the close of the session they were presented with participation certificates. Straughan received a scout leader participation certificate.

McCune was active in general scouting while Hummel took up a den chief course. Straughan was in charge of teaching outdoor cooking.

Some of the many phases of scouting taken up and demonstrated by the boys were: pack rolling, teaching of various pep songs and games, outdoor cooking, fire building and taking care of fires. Over one hundred and fifty Bay area scouts were present.

It was announced this week by Scoutleader Straughan that a competitive contest to choose the best scouts of the troop is now in progress. The winners will be allowed to usher and act as flag bearers at the East-West game.

Plans for a rummage sale were under way. The sale will be held Saturday, December 12, from 9 a. m. until 7 p. m. at 6622 Mission street. The building is now being fixed up as a scout salvage store.

Proceeds from the affair will be used for general scouting purposes. Mothers of the boys will be in charge of the selling.

A. annual bazaar tomorrow, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Mrs. Emma D'Isep, chairman, announces that many lovely and attractive embroidered and crocheted articles will be on sale.

Plans of the annual Christmas party, sponsored by members of the unit, will be made at their regular meeting, Tuesday, December 8, 1:30 p. m. at the school. The party is given each year for the pupils.

Mrs. Hazel Cassasa, president, announces the committee will be appointed at this meeting. The ladies will also plan the refreshments to be served.

All members of the sewing club are invited to the home of Mrs. Mildred Seiler, 663 Evergreen avenue, Tuesday, December 15. A pot-luck lunch will be served and a Christmas party enjoyed.

Memories of home tug hardest during the holiday season. Recruit and veteran alike feel it. Share your Christmas holidays with the boys in Service. It is the kindest, most sincere way to show you care.

Furloughs for the holidays have been restricted. Return to home will have to wait until Victory and Peace have been attained. There is a ranch boy from Wyoming who will miss his Sis, home from college for the brief vacation. There are thousands of boys such as these—away from home, each one eager to meet home folks, talk to someone who reminds him of Dad or Mother or Uncle Hal or Aunt Cassie. ABBOTT AND COSTELLO STAR IN FILM, "PARDON MY SARONG" AT DALY CITY

Abbott and Costello in their brief but spectacular career have portrayed detectives, cowboys, sailors, soldiers, mechanics, and carnival spielers.

In their newest Universal comedy "Pardon My Sarong" which is currently playing at the Daly City theatre, they appear as bus drivers who later become castaways on an uncharted south sea island.

The new vehicle takes the famous comedians halfway around the globe in a combination chase, treasure hunt and encounter with a tribe of south seas dancing beauties.

Virginia Bruce has the leading feminine role and the very imposing cast includes Robert Paige and Leif Erikson. Other notables in the line-up are Lionel Atwill, Nan Wynn and Samuel S. Hinds.

Entertaining novelties are promised by the appearance of Tip, Tap and Toe, dancers, the Saronga Dancing Girls and The Four Ink Spots of radio, stage and juke-box fame.

Many new numbers are listed in the musical score which was supervised by Charles Previn. Selections include "Island of the Moon", "Lovely Luana", "Vingo Jingo", "Do I Worry", "Java Jive" and "Shout, Brother, Shout". The last three numbers are presented by The Four Ink Spots.

Forty And Eight Plan Whist For December 5

Arrangements are being completed for the monthly whist party and dance to be given by San Mateo County Voiture No. 393, Forty and Eight society at Burlingame Legion hall, Saturday evening, December 5. Brenner Announces Band Will Play At East-West Game

George Brenner, conductor, announced today that the Daly City Band will participate in the annual East-West game festivities at Kezar stadium on New Year's Day. The local band has played for this event many times.

Brenner also pointed out that membership in the band is open to newcomers. Many of the players have gone into the armed forces and musicians to replace them are badly needed. Anyone interested may attend one of the regular meetings of the band, held each Tuesday evening at the No. 5 firehouse, Oliver and Bellevue avenues.

ICE POLO

Fast and furious is the fun in the hilarious ice polo games played at Winterland, Post and Steiner streets, each Monday night. The exciting game is fast increasing in popularity, with teams coming from other cities to join the fun in inter-sectional matches.

Ice Polo is played with two six-man teams recruited from the skating patrons at Winterland, and lasts for two short periods. The play has much of the action and thrill of ice hockey, but is played with bound brooms and the regulation "puck," which adds to the hilarity and does away with any danger to the players.

Many other special events are continuing to attract crowds at Winterland now that the winter sports season is under way, according to George J. Campbell, general manager of the big rink.

Just Let Us Know!

This is an invitation from the Daly City Record to any local man in Uncle Sam's armed forces, or his "home folks" to let us know of promotions and activities that would be of interest to Daly City readers. We are always happy to publish such news. Since only a few of the training camps and officers' schools have public relations officers, we do not hear directly of many such promotions unless the men or their families themselves tell us.

When "Johnny" or "Joe" becomes corporal or goes off to officers' training school, let us know. Phone RAndolph 3215. That's NEWS to Daly City. In addition, our long-ago offer to send The Record free to any man fighting for Uncle Sam still holds. Just let us know your name and address.

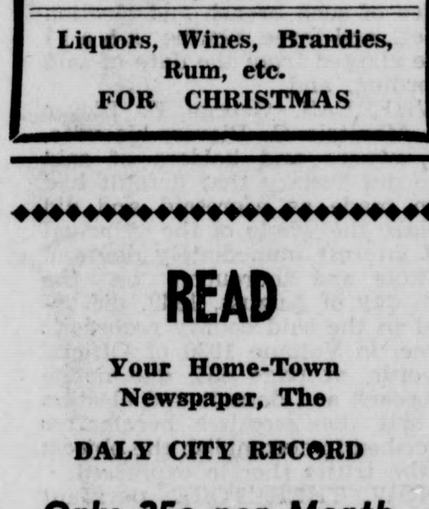
SHORT CUTS



AT every meal when the baby is being fed, try using a paper towel as a bib.

This is easily accomplished by using two ordinary paper clamps tied together with a piece of string or ribbon about eight inches long. A single paper towel is then torn off and clamped under baby's chin. The resulting bib is a highly absorbent, thoroughly sanitary, easily disposable food catcher which costs a fraction of the cost of laundering the ordinary bib.

Name Roy Giusti On All-Coast Eleven

Daly City boy, Tony Compagno, has been the mainstay of the Gaels' backfield during the past football season, was praised highly by Glendon in a recent sport column appearing in the Call-Bulletin. Roy was given the left halfback spot in Glendon's All-Coaster. Herewith is a reprint of Glendon's words on behalf of Roy:

"Our left half would be Giusti of St. Mary's, who can run, pass, punt, quick-kick. With Waterfield (U. C. L. A.'s All-American candidate) and Giusti, we could shift into the single wing occasionally for a change of pace and create a thousand defensive headaches for our opponents. (Glendon's team favors the T formation).

"Even though Giusti had but a short while to prove his worth, we never saw any junior left half who showed more in running, passing, and kicking than this Gael junior. Giusti has the speed of Kmetovic, the passing command of Jesse Freitas, and he can kick with anyone."

Giusti, (and the "i" comes before the "u" in the spelling, despite sport scribes' insistent spelling as "Guisti") is a junior in St. Mary's college, having graduated from Jefferson Union high school in June, 1940. He blazed his trail to stardom on the Jefferson football team of 1939, the fall before he entered college. Besides the host of sports honors to Roy while in high schoool, he won the William J. Fitzgerald trophy for football passing at St. Mary's two years straight at the annual homecoming day celebrations.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Giusti, 374 Woodrow street.

Unless Really Necessary

PLEASE DON'T TRAVEL

WAR SERVICE COMES FIRST!

Don't travel unless you must . . . War service must come first . . . Ask yourself, before you travel: Is this trip necessary?

These, briefly, are admonitions and warnings of our Government, for all transportation is now vitally needed to carry our Armed Forces, workers in war plants and other essential travelers.

In the past, Americans took extra trips over the Holidays, causing an above-normal volume of travel.

But these are not normal times. Today transportation is faced with a serious shortage of equipment. Trained personnel has been depleted by the need for fighting men. Lower operating speed has become necessary in order to save rubber. Now gasoline rationing will make it necessary for many additional essential travelers to depend on already overloaded buses.

That is why we appeal to you to postpone any pleasure trip you have planned which requires the use of public transportation. But another important reason is that thousands of our boys in the Armed Forces want to be home for the Holidays. Every one of them who can get leave deserves this privilege . . . we are not asking them not to travel. You, by giving up your trips, can add to their enjoyment and comfort. We are sure that every American will be eager and proud to make this sacrifice.

So please don't travel unless absolutely necessary—especially over the Holidays and week-ends.

When the famous company was presented in San Francisco, November 19-25, by the Opera association, Lang was in the majority of the numbers He had a featured role in "Le Beau Danube." His work was conspicuously good in all of the ballets, including "Rodeo," the clever new American ballet which received ovation after ovation from San Francisco audiences, as well as voluminous praise from the critics.

Lang, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lang, 14 Alp street, first rose to prominence as a dancer when he was featured with the San Francisco Opera ballet. In the summer of 1941 he was accepted by the world-reknowned Ballet Russe, with whom he has toured the country since.

Lang, a graduate of Jefferson Union high school, has made astounding progress since he first entered the world of the ballet.

President Warns Tuberculosis Increases

A warning that tuberculosis is increasing alarmingly in warring countries was sounded, last week, by President Roosevelt in endorsing the thirty-sixth annual Christmas Seal campaign of the National Tuberculosis association, which is now under way.

President Roosevelt said that it will take the greatest effort possible on the part of the people to hold the disease in check in this country. In endorsing the Christmas Seal campaign, President Roosevelt issued the letter below:

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 27, 1942

The unholy alliance between war and disease is particularly powerful in the case of tuberculosis. Tuberculosis has increased in every past war. The disease is increasing alarmingly in many warring European and Asiatic countries.

In the United States tuberculosis is now at the lowest rate in our history. But, to hold the disease in check during wartime will demand the greatest effort possible on the part of the people, the medical profession, the tuberculosis associations and the official health departments. Cooperation of all people in the fight against tuberculosis is imperative.

The tuberculosis associations are well under way in their intensified and expanded wartime campaign. I have full confidence that the American people will generously add the purchase of Christmas Seals, the main support of the National Tuberculosis Association and its seventeen hundred affiliated associations, to their many other wartime activities.

while the other prepared for the getaway in their automobile, he told Daly City police. Mrs. Keifer lent a sensational touch to the Daly City robbery when she pinned a white chrysanthemum on her sweater, taking it from a bouquet on the bar.

Police Chief James G. Reardon of the Daly City Police department said, yesterday, that following recovery of Mrs. Keifer and subsequent trial in San Francisco, the two girl bandits will be booked here for arraignment in Daly City court on charges of robbing the Globe tavern.

Furnishes Hall For Red Cross Work

At home and abroad the American Red Cross is playing an heroic role in alleviating the sufferings of war's victims, as well as maintaining its peace time schedule of worth-while projects. The cooperation of many groups and individuals makes this gigantic project possible.

In Daly City, a group of women under the direction of Town Chairman Mrs. Horace Fellows meets regularly to sew and to handle the many other community duties incident to furthering the Red Cross program. For the part of the undertaking which involves the making of garments, bandages, and knit wear for soldiers, sailors and civilians, the local unit of the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross, utilizes Theatre hall, above the Daly City theatre. This fine work shop, with utilities paid, is provided by J. W. Marchbank, who has long taken a major part in furthering worthwhile Daly City civic enterprises.

When War came, Mr. Marchbank opened the hall, which had been closed for social and organization use, to the Red Cross for its work. Until after the war the hall will be used as a Red Cross sewing room, exclusively.

P. G. MacCormac Gets Promotion

Preston G. MacCormac, 531 San Diego avenue, Daly City, has been promoted to the warrant officer rank of Quartermaster Clerk in the Marine Corps, it was learned today.

His new rank is the highest of the corps' non-commissioned ranks and carries with it the title of "Mister."

MacCormac, 39, a Marine since his enlistment in Spokane, Washington, 1928, is at present stationed in San Francisco. There he is attached to Marine headquarters, Department of the Pacific.

His wife and two children make their home at the San Diego avenue address. He is a former employee of the Postal Telegraph company and has been interested in radio for many years.

Nope, It's No Joke

You've probably been thinking, comfortably, that the post office's worries were not your headache—and, if you send no Christmas presents or greeting cards to friends and relatives that's possibly true. But, if you do play Santa Claus at this time of year, the "must mail early" plea is directed right at you. It's more than a plea, too, because you'll either have to cooperate with the post office on mailing schedules, or face the prospect of those Christmas gifts arriving at their destinations along about the Ides of March.

Greetings and gifts should be mailed to meet the dates fixed in the following schedule: addressed to points in states east of Chicago, mail not later than December 1; middle western states, not later than Wednesday, December 2; Rocky mountain states, Oregon and Washington, Nevada and Utah, not later than Saturday, December 5; California, not later than Thursday, December 10; San Francisco and San Francisco suburban, not later than Tuesday, December 15.

followed closely by the rationing of canned foods (some meat, fish, fruits, vegetables, some soups, beans). Others are: lard, tea, dried fruits, bananas, cocoa, chocolates, frozen foods, and milk.

Rationing, particularly in foods, is not as drastic a reduction as the people make it, OPA officials have pointed out. For instance, past figures show that America consumes about 12.5 pounds of coffee per capita annually. Therefore a ration of one pound every five weeks is not too much to ask.

Since Sunday, one pound of coffee per person could be purchased to last until Sunday, January 3, on presenting S amp No. 27 in War Ration Book One (book used for sugar).

Stamp No. 10 will be in use for buying sugar after Tuesday, December 15.

Local Men Greet Joseph C. Grew

Four members of Daly City's Civilian Defense council were on a reception committee in San Francisco, Friday night, to honor Joseph C. Grew, America's former ambassador to Japan. They were part of the group to greet Grew when he spoke before a large throng in San Francisco's Civic auditorium.

Asked to participate as part of the reception committee for Grew, the four Daly City officials helped represent the Regional Office of Civilian Defense. They were: Mayor A. J. Gaggero, Arthur J. Bodien, director of civilian defense; Fred Collins, city health officer; and Joe Sarto, manager of the Villa hospital and in charge of civilian defense hospitalization.

Besides other civilian defense dignitaries in San Francisco and the Bay area, the committee also included high ranking military and naval officers.

Grew told his large American audience that Japan's final aim is not to conquer American, China, or the southwest Pacific, but it was to rule the entire world. He delivered a stern warning to the American people against overconfidence, telling of Japan's war preparations. But he also declared that Japan's soldiers who have met our soldiers and marines on the Solomons have had their faith in Japanese military leaders considerably shaken, having been told that Americans were a "soft, pampered, flabby people."

Mrs. Gomez got into the car, and they overtook Hurley a few blocks away with a purse in his hand. Sergeant Jassen jumped from the car and ordered Hurley to get in. He was then taken to Daly City police headquarters.

Sergeant Jassen was the other witness testifying in Tuesday's preliminary hearing. Hurley was non-committal at the hearing, not being subject to cross-examination.

and obtained her M. S. at the same university in 1933. After graduation she was athletic instructor at the University of Oregon, and later in charge of the recreation department and head of the girls' physical education department at Jefferson Union high school.

As a member of the Office of Civilian Defense and instructor in the Red Cross first aid course in Daly City, Miss Young was doing her bit for the war even before she joined the WAAC in September.

She had been attending the Administrative Specialist school of the corps before she was selected for the first officer's candidate class open to auxiliaries.

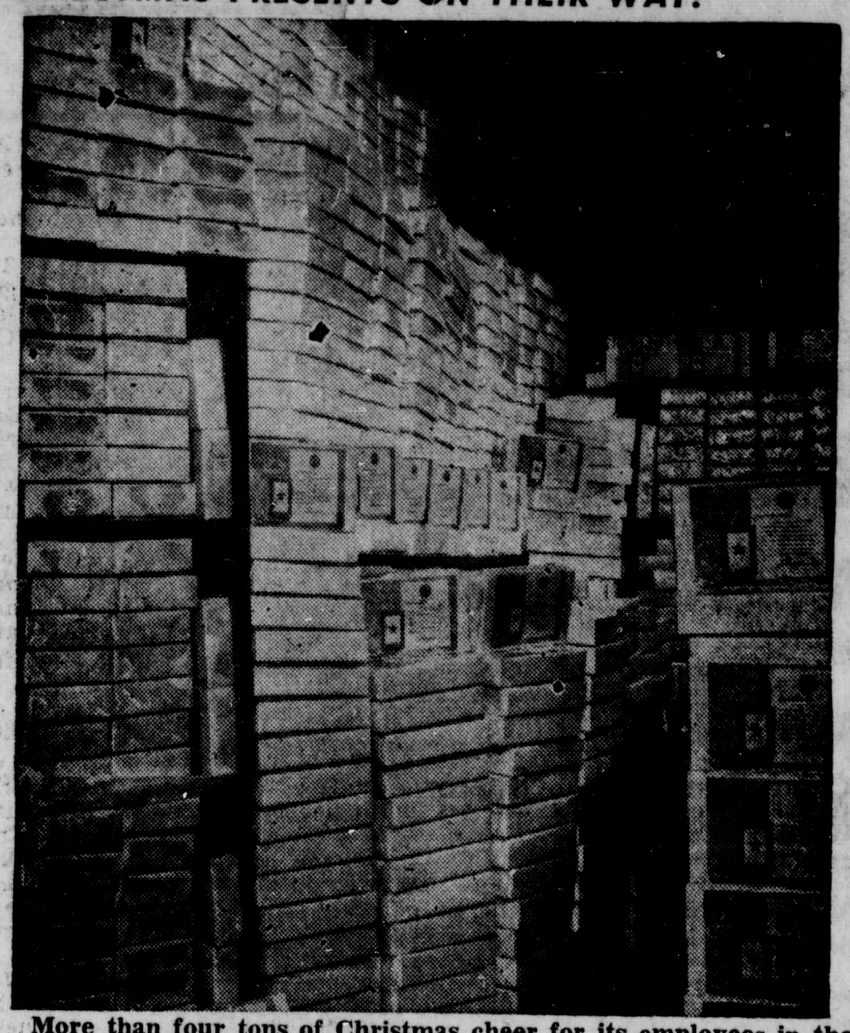
CHRISTMAS PRESENTS ON THEIR WAY!



More than four tons of Christmas cheer for its employees in the armed forces has been prepared in 2,750 individual 3-pound packages by the Bank of America. Several hundred for men overseas were shipped last month, the remainder (only one third of which shows above) will go to training camps in this country soon. Into the packages went 27,500 safety razor blades, 220,000 cigarettes (four popular brands), 27,500 sticks of chewing gum and an assortment of sweetmeats specially made to withstand shipment, including 16,500 candy bars and thousands of barley sugar squares, wrapped chews, cinnamon, licorice and coffee confections, and assorted salted nuts—just the thing a young man-about-war will relish as a reminder of home and Christmas.

Gone into service from Daly City branch are Edward Silvey and John E. Richter, while from Colma branch Arthur Ferretti and Eugene A. Del Monte are with Uncle Sam's armed units.

Southern Pacific is facing a critical situation in connection with holiday travel. Many thousands of men in uniform are being given holiday furloughs. We think everyone agrees that these men should be given first consideration. We intend to carry them wherever they wish to go.

Where men in uniform are not going on furlough they will be visited, in many cases, by their parents or wives. Their travel requirements must be recognized, too.

The tide of war traffic — troops, equipment, supplies and war materials — is mounting higher and higher, and we are hard pressed to supply the equipment to move it. Every locomotive we have or can rent is being used. The supply of passenger-carrying cars left for civilian use is naturally reduced.

Consequently, we will not be able to carry all the people who want to make holiday trips, despite all our efforts to increase the passenger-carrying capacity of our trains.

This is why we ask you not to travel during the holiday season.

Beans for "Pepper-Upper" Vitamins

Beans are important—now! They're chuck full of nutritious goodness, especially Vitamin B_1—that "pepper-upper" vitamin that acts as the vitamin miracle man, stimulating run-down appetites and quieting jangled war nerves. Beans also contain protein, perfect in combination with different vegetables as the main dish of a meal.

When seryed as in the menu given below, beans become family favorites—and interchangeable dependables.

BOSTON BAKED BEANS
(Patriotic too)

5 cups cooked dried beans	¼ tsp. paprika
¼ cup finely chopped onion	½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. prepared mustard	¾ cup water
	2 tbsps. dark molasses
	3 slices bacon

Place cooked beans in well-greased 1½ qt. casserole. Thoroughly combine onion, mustard, paprika, salt, water and molasses. Pour over beans. Strip with bacon. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes or until browned. Serves 6.

THIS IS IMPORTANT

UP-TO-DATE bean cookery suggests that to cook navy, lima, pink and red, kidney or cranberry beans, you pick over beans carefully, removing any damaged beans or foreign particles. Wash well in sieve or bowl. Do not soak.* Improved agricultural methods have made it possible to produce more tender beans with tender skins. Soaking will cut cooking time about one-third, but makes beans mushy and unattractive. Place in kettle at least 4 times greater in volume than beans. Add hot water to cover and 1 tsp. salt for each cup beans and cover. Cook at simmering temperature until beans are tender, 2 to 3 hours. Add more water as needed to keep beans well covered during cooking.

*Limas should be soaked in water to cover 6 to 8 hours or over night as they cling to their tough outer skin.

"DAY OF INFAMY"

On December 7, we shall remember Pearl Harbor. We shall remember how the ship docked at Honolulu to the strains of Hawaiian music, and how the sleek brown bodies of the native boys flashed in the sun when they high-dived after coins dropped into the water. We remember the Islands gleaming like brilliant jewels in the incredible blue setting of the Pacific. We remember the freedom of the seas.

We remember America too, a people somewhat uneasy, somewhat indifferent, until that Sunday morning when the radio solemnly intoned, "We are at war with Japan. Japan has attacked Pearl Harbor without warning." President Roosevelt has given the day the name history will repeat when he referred to it as an occasion to be remembered in silence, a 'day of infamy.'

Suddenly soldiers and sailors flooded the streets. Suddenly the ships in the harbor changed from fresh, light paint, to the sinister grey of the horizon in fog. We saw the transports loading our boys on board, we saw the mine buoys bobbing in the harbors. The warning wail of the black-out siren, factory whistles blowing through the night—the wheels of war began to turn. Heavily, awkwardly, a cumbersome thing we scarcely knew how to manage at first, the war effort gathered momentum and speed, drawing into its churning wake every one of us. America, awake to the dangers of totalitarian ambition, took up the sword which she will never lay aside till the enemy is vanquished utterly.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

MOST city folks think every once in a while, "Wouldn't it be nice to go out and live in the woods away from everything?" But there are not so many who do anything about it. Two who did are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rich, who have lived up in the forests of Maine far from civilization for some nine years—and like it. What life is like there—both hardships and pleasures—is told in "We Took to the Woods," by Louise Dickinson Rich, one of the December Book-of-the-Month Club selections.

MRS. RALPH RICH

One of the minor problems connected with living in the wilderness is getting sufficient store of food in to last them between treks to Rumford, the nearest village. In the summer they make the journey about once a week, but in the wintertime, they're lucky if they get through once a month. Just try to make out a list of groceries for a month, says Mrs. Rich. It's not as easy as you think. At first, she says, she always forgot staples—such as sugar, flour and tea—going on the assumption that one always has sugar, flour and tea. "It didn't take me long," she writes, "to learn this little fact of life—one doesn't."

The village grocer is very obliging, she says, but Rumford is no Babylon, rich in exotic viands. Once, in her ignorance she ordered artichokes and got back a little note saying, "I heard of these, but I never see one."

The real excitement of deer-hunting, the author tells us, isn't hunting deer. It's hunting hunters. A city hunter may think he's having a unique experience when he gets lost but to the Riches, it's just the same old story. They hear in the distance the three shots of a gun, the universal woods signal of distress, and then they know they've got to interrupt their dinner or whatever they are doing and start a search. It wouldn't be so bad, if the hunter would build a fire and then stay put. But he never does. "They all do the same thing. They start travelling as fast as they can, usually in the wrong direction and always in circles."

The Riches have a telephone—an extension of that belonging to the nearby lumber camp. For convenience the lumber camp has phones attached to trees in several different parts of their preserves. When a wandering fisherman comes along and sees a telephone on a tree he never can resist it. He picks it up and rings once—the Riches' signal. They've got to recognize these quavering rings now, and when they hear them, they just pick up their phone and say, "Grand Central Station. Information Booth," and hang up.

One evening Frank, the lumbercamp cook, who was courting a young lady living a considerable distance away, came knocking at Mrs. Rich's door. "You got a flat-iron?" he asked. "Can I borrow it? I got to press my pants." Mrs. Rich pointed out that his young lady lived too far for him to get there and back all in one evening. "Oh, I wasn't planning on that," was Frank's answer. "I'm just going to call her up. An' I ain't going to talk to no girl on the telephone with my pants looking like I'd slept in 'em."

Better Plant A Victory Garden!

The growing shortage of labor is creating an acute situation in the production of foods for civilian use, according to Agricultural Commissioner Max. J. Leonard. This shortage is the result of many of the farm workers drifting into the higher paid brackets of defense industry, the drafting of a heavy percentage of such farm workers by the Selective Service Boards and the voluntary enlistment of the younger men working farms. Leonard points out that the meatless days recently experienced will probably be a regular routine matter for the duration of the war and the lack of vegetables or lack of variety of vegetables experienced by the housewife in her marketing now will be a common occurrence for some time to come, if people depend wholly on the commercial production of these products. The armed forces will require heavy shipments of all food produced since it is most essential that these forces be well supplied. The lend-lease program to other nations is drawing very heavily on all foods and the loss in shipping is not only confined to cargoes of war materials for fighting but also many ships loaded with food have been lost in the convoys proceeding over-seas or between coastal ports.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has urged every householder to grow as much of his own food as possible since there is an urgent need to increase the amount of food produced at home for home use. With the commercial supplies so thoroughly earmarked for over-seas shipment or for the armed forces at home, it is evident that wherever the home owner has a piece of ground available, he should plant as much food for himself as he can, Leonard said. Many people have grown a victory garden this last year and in most instances have been very successful. Leonard urges that those who have tried and had indifferent success should not be discouraged but plant again this year. He points out the fact that the commercial growers are thoroughly in accord with this plan and on numerous occasions when the matter has come up in U. S. D. A. County War Board or Civilian Defense Committee meetings that growers present have emphasized the fact that it is highly important for everyone to help himself since they could readily see that the commercial supply of fresh vegetables would be curtailed to the civilian population.

Not only are the people of San Mateo county being urged to grow their own vegetables but also to raise as much poultry and rabbits as is practical under existing regulations of the various municipalities in the county. Leonard stated that the Home Food Production program will include also encouragement for home food canning and drying so that the perishable products can be spread over a much longer period.

A county-wide meeting was held, Monday, November 30, in the supervisors' chambers at the court house, Redwood City to set up a program to further the development of the Victory garden idea.

If You Won't Work You Can't Collect

The State Department of Employment has prepared to put into effect at once, an additional two-week disqualification period for unemployment insurance claimants who refuse suitable employment.

The new disqualification period, which brings the total penalty for refusing work to six weeks instead of four, was adopted by the Employment commission after lengthy hearings in which representatives of employers and labor presented arguments for and against revision of Commission Rule 56.1.

Effect of the rule, according to R. G. Wagenet, director of the department, actually will be to disqualify a claimant who refuses suitable work for two months, as the two-week waiting period must be served in addition to the six-week penalty.

COUNTY RELIEF

Continued falling off in the number of persons dependent on county indigent relief in San Mateo county, was reported today by California Taxpayers' association. The number of persons receiving this kind of aid went from 911 in September to 850 in October. January total was 948 persons. For January, aid paid to county indigents in the county totalled $4,748.

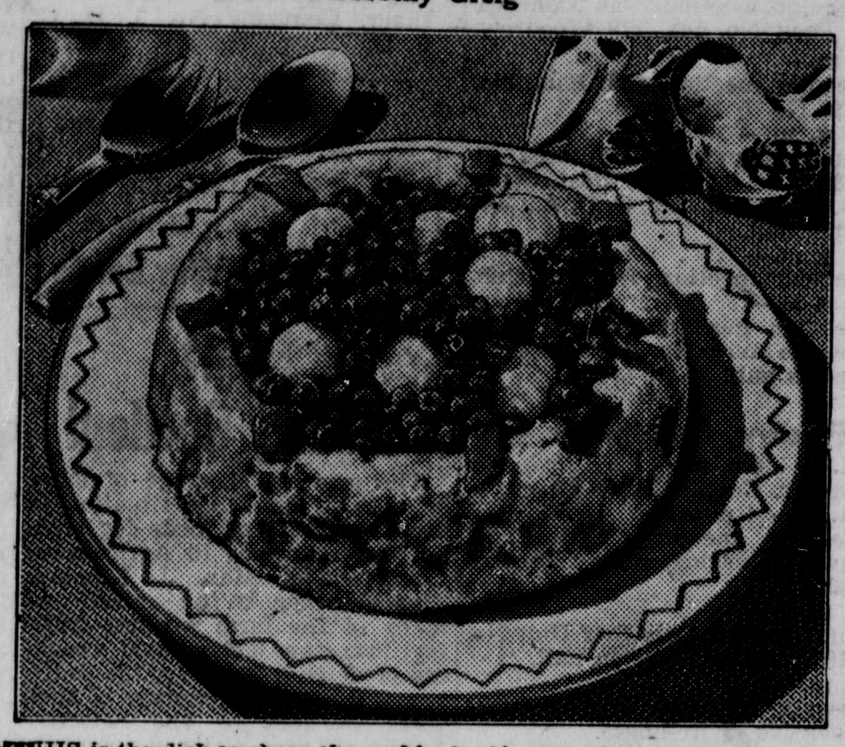
MEATLESS DISH FOR SUPPER on a Cold Night

Dorothy Greig



THIS is the dish to cheer the soul of any women on the watch for foods that are nourishing, economical—and easy to put together. It calls for eggs—which belong in the same category as meat in type of nutriment. It includes condensed pepper pot soup to give body, delicately spicy flavor and more nourishment. And as a final flourish, it is garnished with peas and onions.

Baked Pepper Pot Mold filled with Peas and onions

2 eggs
1 can condensed pepper pot soup
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon pimiento, diced
2 cups bread, cubed

Beat the eggs slightly and to them add the pepper pot soup. Then add the milk, diced pimiento, and bread cubes (made from bread at least one day old). Pour mixture into a greased ring mold (about 7 inches in diameter) and let stand for 15 minutes. Bake in 350°F. oven for 35 to 45 minutes or until firm. Unmold on a hot platter or chop plate. Fill the center with peas and onions and garnish with pimiento. Buttered brussels sprouts may be used for the center instead of peas and onions, if desired.
